NOTES

Willow is an exceptional standard poodle, exuding confidence and a strong, human-centric personality. She thrives on human interaction and adores being the center of attention. Willow's nurturing spirit has shone through in three remarkable litters of puppies, but now she's ready to retire and enjoy the love and care of a forever family. With her lively and fun-loving nature, Willow is the perfect choice for a family seeking an affectionate and lively companion. She's more than a dog; she's a source of joy and companionship for any family fortunate enough to bring her into their home.

Please be aware that the temperament evaluation scores are intended to offer valuable insights into the dog's personality traits, reflecting their temperament up until this point. However, it is crucial that you collaborate closely with Daneesha & Brandon for personalized guidance when selecting. It is important to acknowledge that a single aptitude test cannot possibly account for all the variables that contribute to a dog's temperament. Nevertheless, this report does provide you with a substantial understanding of temperament traits and how they may align with your individual requirements. Our ultimate goal is to provide every dog with a voice in their placement, empowering you to create a meaningful and harmonious connection.
